

Pillars of Peace - Estonia

The stone with natural edges comes from Karin quarry. It is a Borealis limestone, also known as shell limestone, which is largely composed of the spores of the borealis borealis fossils. The stone gets its colors from different minerals.

The square-edged processed stone originates from Kaarma quarry and is called Gasell, one of the most beautiful stones in Estonia. The peace contains crystal nests and fossils.